ANNIVERSARY MEETING
OF THE CHILDREN
OF THE
CHARITY-SCHOOLS,
OF
LONDON, WESTMINSTER, SOUTHWARK,
AND ENVIRONS.

THESE Charity-Schools being a great Support to the Protestant Religion and established Church of England, deserve the Protection of every Advocate for the Christian System, and every Friend to the British Constitution; but viewed in the Light of Humanity, as well as Policy, they demand the Patronage of every Friend to Human Nature.

MORE than Seven Thousand Children cloathed and educated in this Metropolis, and a great Number of them wholly supported, by the voluntary Bounty of Individuals only, without any obligatory Support from the Laws, present to the Admiration of surrounding States, a Picture of the British Character, liberally and amiably pourtrayed.

THE Anniversary Meeting of the Children of these Charity-Schools, at Divine Service, is an affecting Display of public Benevolence, a grateful Tribute to the Memory of our generous Ancestors who established them, and an animating Incentive to the present Age, to patronize and transmit to Posterity, these excellent Institutions, so ornamental to this Country, and unrivalled in any other.

IN order, therefore, that so glorious a Display of public Benevolence may ever continue to adorn this great and opulent Metropolis, to attract the public Regard, and delight the public Eye, a Society is established, under the Protection and constant Benevolence of the SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE, on the following liberal Principles.
